

ARLANDER, ANNETTE KRISTINA

Annette Arlander is an artist, researcher and a pedagogue, one of the pioneers of Finnish performance art (in 1980's) and a trailblazer of artistic research (in 1990's). She is educated as theatre director, Master of Arts (philosophy) and Doctor of Art (theatre and drama). Arlander was the first to be awarded a doctorate from the Theatre Academy, Helsinki (in 1999). In 2001 she was invited as professor of performance art and theory to instigate the MA degree program in performance art and theory (or Live Art and performance studies, as it is called today) a position she held until 2013. In 2007-2009 she was also head of the research department or Performing Arts Research Centre (Tutke) at the Theatre Academy. In 2015-2016 she was professor of artistic research at the University of the Arts Helsinki Theatre Academy and (temporary) vice dean for research there, as well as visiting professor at Stockholm University of the Arts. In 2016 she was professor of artistic research at Academy of Fine Arts University of the Arts Helsinki. In 2017 Arlander was a postdoctoral fellow in the arts at Helsinki Collegium for Advanced Studies. In 2018-2019 she was professor in performance, art and theory at Stockholm University of the Arts with the artistic research project, funded by Vetenskapsrådet, Performing with Plants. She was the principal investigator of the Academy of Finland funded research project How to Do Things with Performance (2016-2020), the artistic research project Meetings with Remarkable and Unremarkable Trees (2021-2022) supported by the Finnish Cultural Foundation and the project Pondering with Pines (2022-2024) funded by the Arts Promotion Centre Finland. At present she is affiliated as visiting researcher at Academy of Fine Arts University of the Arts Helsinki. Arlander is member of the editorial board of JAR (Journal for Artistic Research), member of the board of directors of PSi (Performance Studies International) and co-convener of the Artistic Research Working Group. Her research interests are related to artistic research, performance-as-research, performance studies, site-specificity, and the environment. Her artwork is focused on performing landscape by means of video or recorded voice, and moves between the traditions of performance art, video art and environmental art.
